

Feng Shui Max

About Maxine

About Maxine Kyser

Maxine Rae Kyser graduated with honors in Asia in the most advanced class offered by Feng Shui Grand Master Yap Chieng Hai, one of the top Feng Shui Masters in the world. She is among the handful of Feng Shui practitioners in the USA trained by Master Yap and approved to teach his course work.

Maxine offers advanced Feng Shui strategies and cures that blend ancient Chinese wisdom with the nuts and bolts requirements of modern American life. With a Fine Arts degree and over 17 years experience in the field of design, Maxine brings a discerning eye to her work.

For the last 10 years, she has used advanced techniques to make the home both healthy and happy. Her passion for consulting, as well as teaching, Classical Feng Shui come through with warmth and compassion. She makes complex topics easy to understand and creates a Feng Shui experience that entertains while it informs.

Maxine provides powerful and personalized Feng Shui solutions that get results!

“As a translator, I lead my clients through complex traditional Chinese practices to find an application that resonates with American culture, resulting in powerful and comfortable environments that meet the client’s model of the world. I move and align energy to create the cozy feeling and peace of mind that only authentic Feng Shui can create so you can say ‘feels like home’...”

Clients include: Individuals; Business Owners; Corporations

Strategic partners include: Architects; Building Contractors; Interior Designers

Feng Shuí MAX:

- Listens to you and your needs, employing sensitivity and patience;
- Analyzes with an eye that is only possible from one who has studied from a world-wide recognized Master;
- Applies advanced formulas that meet your specific needs;
- Prioritizes Feng Shui cure recommendations
- Works with you, at your pace;
- Places Feng Shui into perspective with Western needs/real life and personal destiny;
- Provides the information and advice you need to make optimal decisions.

What People Are Saying About The Feng Shuí MAX Experience

“Maxine’s command of advanced Feng Shui practices is profound. Coupled with her talent for reading subtle energy, she possesses a unique set of skills I have come to trust. That she also appreciates the need to apply this ancient Eastern wisdom to Western life and the very individual needs of those with whom she works grounds her practice into a powerful form of practical magic.”

~ Melanei Mulhall ~ Shaman and author of Living The Dream—A Guidebook For Job Seekers And Career Explorers

“Working with Maxine has been an amazing opportunity. We have benefited from her Feng Shui expertise with both our previous home and our current one.

Maxine helped us select a house that would maximize our health, harmony, and prosperity—and then she supported us through the remodel, serving as our interior designer and on-site supervisor while we were out of the country. Everyone who comes to visit comments about how balanced and comfortable the house feels, as well as how stunning it looks.

Enhanced health, domestic bliss, and re-ignited career passion, and more life fulfillment are among the things not obvious to the casual observer who visits our home, but they have been the direct result of Maxine’s magic.

Maxine is not just a Feng Shui Practitioner, she’s a Master Feng Shui Practitioner. She brings astounding knowledge, incredible experience, and deep intuition to her work. Working with Maxine is working with a Feng Shui Master indeed!”

~Elyn Aviva ~ Author of Hiking the Camino